The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 22, to Tuesday April 25, 1780.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of April, 1780,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS ſince the Commencement of the War in which Great-Britain is engaged by the unprovoked Aggreſſion of France and Spain, repeated Memorials have been preſented by His Majeſty's Ambaſſador to the States General of the United Provinces, demanding the Succours ſtipulated by Treaty; to which Requiſition, though ſtrongly called upon in the laſt Memorial of the 21ſt of March, Their High Mightineſſes have given no Anſwer, nor ſignified any Intention of complying therewith: And whereas by the Non-Performance of the cleareſt Engagements, they deſert the Alliance that has ſo long ſubſiſted between the Crown of Great-Britain and the Republick, and place themſelves in the Condition of a Neutral Power, bound to this Kingdom by no Treaty, every Principle of Wiſdom and Juſtice requires, that His Majeſty ſhould conſider them henceforward as ſtanding only in that diſtant Relation in which they have placed themſelves: His Majeſty therefore having taken this Matter into His Royal Conſideration, doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, judge it expedient to carry into immediate Execution thoſe Intentions which were formally notified in the Memorial preſented by His Ambaſſador on the 21ſt of March laſt, and previouſly ſignified in an Official Verbal Declaration, made by Lord Viſcount Stormont, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to Count Welderen, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Republick, nearly Two Months before the Delivery of the aforeſaid Memorial: For theſe Cauſes, His Majeſty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, That the Subjects of the United Provinces are henceforward to be conſidered upon the ſame Footing with thoſe of other Neutral States not privileged by Treaty; and His Majeſty doth hereby ſuſpend, proviſionally, and 'till further Order, all the particular Stipulations reſpecting the Freedom of Navigation and Commerce, in Time of War, of the Subjects of the States General, contained in the ſeveral Treaties now ſubſiſting between His Majeſty and the Republick, and more particularly thoſe contained in the Marine Treaty between Great-Britain and the United Provinces, concluded at London, December $\frac{1}{11}$, 1674.

From a humane Regard to the Intereſts of Individuals, and a Deſire to prevent their ſuffering by any Surprize, His Majeſty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, that the Effect of this His Majeſty's Order ſhall take Place at the following Terms, viz.

In the Channel and the North Seas, Twelve Days after the Date hereof.

From the Channel, the Britiſh Seas, and the North Seas, as far as the Canary Iſlands incluſively, either in the Ocean or Mediterranean, the Term ſhall be Six Weeks from the aforeſaid Date.

Three Months from the ſaid Canary Iſlands as far as the Equinoctial Line or Equator.

And laſtly, Six Months beyond the ſaid Line or Equator, and in all other Parts of the World, without any Exception or other more particular Deſcription of Time and Place.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, April 25.

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Hillſborough, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very raciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wexford, at Spring Aſſizes aſſembled, March 31, 1780.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of he County of Wexford, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We entertain a moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland; and the happy Alteration which the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the liberal Sentiments of the Britiſh Parliament, have made in the Situation of our Affairs.

We feel a double Satisfacton at the Benefits which have been conferred on us, both as they appear to us to be an adequate Remedy for the Poverty of this Country, and as they are undoubted Proofs of that Siſterly Affection which we think we have a Right to expect from Great Britain, and which it ſhall be our conſtant Study to cultivate and improve into the moſt perfect and mutual Confidence.

We do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that we feel the ſincereſt Pleaſure at finding that the Ties, which have always united the two Kingdoms, are now drawn cloſer by the Conduct of our Fellow-Subjects; and do aſſure your Majeſty, that on our Parts our utmoſt Endeavours ſhall never be wanting to maintain that intimate Connection between both Kingdoms, which we are firmly perſuaded is inſeparable from their Happineſs and Proſperity.

[Signed by John Drake, High Sheriff; the Foreman, and reſt of the Grand Jury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, convened by the High Sheriff at the County Court-Houſe this 4th Day of April, 1780.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We entertain a moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland; and the happy Alteration, which the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the liberal Sentiments of the Britiſh Parliament, have made in the Situation of our Affairs.

We feel a double Satisfaction at the Benefits which have been conferred on us, both as they appear to be to us an adequate Remedy for the Poverty verty of this Country, and as they are undoubted Proofs of that Sifterly Affection, which we think we have a Right to expect from Great Britain, and which it ſhall be our conſtant Study to cultivate and improve into the moſt perfect mutual Confidence.

We do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that we feel the ſincereſt Pleaſure at finding that the Ties, which have always united the two Kingdoms, are now drawn cloſer by the Conduct of our Fellow-Subjects; and do aſſure your Majeſty, that on our Parts our utmoſt Endeavours ſhall never be wanting to maintain that intimate Connexion between both Kingdoms, which we are moſt firmly perſuaded is inſeparable from their Happineſs and Proſperity.

John Drake, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Inhabitants of theCounty of Clare in Ireland, at their General Aſſizes aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Inhabitants of the County of Clare; beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We entertain a moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland, and the happy Alteration which the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the liberal Sentiments of the Britiſh Parliament, have made in the Situation of our Affairs.

We feel a double Satisfaction at the Benefits which have been conferred on us, both (as they appear to us) as likely to alleviate the Poverty and Diſtreſs of this Country, and as they are undoubted Proofs of the Sifterly Affection, which we think we have a Right to expect from Great Britain, and which it ſhall be our conſtant Study to cultivate and improve into the moſt perfect mutual Confidence.

We do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that we feel the ſincereſt Pleaſure at finding that the Ties, which have always united the two Kingdoms, are now drawn cloſer by the Conduct of our Fellow-Subjects; and we do aſſure your Majeſty, that on our Parts our utmoſt Endeavours ſhall never be wanting to maintain that intimate Connection between both Kingdoms, which we are moſt firmly perſuaded is inſeparable from their Happineſs and Proſperity. And we have the additional Happineſs to feel, that in theſe our Expreſſions of the warmeſt Acknowledgment, we but follow the unanimous Senſe of our Parliament, and the general Sentiments of a grateful Nation.

[Signed by E. W. Burton, High Sheriff; the Foreman, and reſt of the Grand Jury; and 131 of the Inhabitants.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wicklow, aſſembled the 5th of April, 1780.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wicklow, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We entertain a moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland, and the happy Alteration which the Wiſdom of your Councils and the liberal Sentiments of the Britiſh Parliament have made in the Situation of our Affairs.

We feel a double Satisfaction at the Benefits which have been conferred on us, both as they appear to us to be an adequate Remedy for the Poverty of this Country, and as they are undoubted Proofs of that ſifterly Affection which we think we have a Right to expect from Great Britain, and which it ſhall be our conſtant Study to cultivate and improve into the moſt perfect and mutual Confidence.

We do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that we feel the ſincereſt Pleaſure at finding that the Ties which have always united the Two Kingdoms are now drawn cloſer by the Conduct of our Fellow-Subjects; and do aſſure your Majeſty, that, on our Parts, our utmoſt Endeauours ſhall never be wanting to maintain that intimate Connection between both Kingdoms, which we are firmly perſuaded is inſeparable from their Happineſs and Proſperity.

[Signed by Andrew Prior, High Sheriff, the Foreman, and reſt of the Grand Jury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Tipperary in Ireland, at their Spring Aſſizes, aſſembled in Clonmel on the 25th of March, 1780.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Tipperary, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with the moſt heartfelt Expreſſions of Gratitude and Reſpect to your ſacred Perſon, for the many Proofs, but more particularly that recent one, of your Majeſty's paternal Feelings for the Diſtreſſes of your moſt faithful Subjects of Ireland.

The Part your Majeſty has moſt graciouſly been pleaſed to take, for the juſt and important Extenſion of our national Commerce, at the ſame Time that it fills our Breaſts with the moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's equal and liberal Affection to your Subjects, as their common Father, affords us the additional Satisfaction that it will prove the happy Means of ſtrengthening and perpetuating that Harmony between the Siſter Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, ſo eſſential to the Intereſts of both.

Our Situation in this Part of the Kingdom demands, in a more particular Manner, our warmeſt Acknowledgments for Bleſſings now opening to our View; —Bleſſings reſerved to mark and give Luſtre to your Majeſty's Reign.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as a free and loyal People, we ſhall at all Times chearfully devote our Lives and Fortunes in the Support of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Government, and our invaluable Conſtitution; and, upon every Occaſion emulouſly labour to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Affection, Duty and Gratitude.

[Signed by Thomas Pierſon Firman, High Sheriff; the Foreman, and reſt of the Grand Jury.]

St. James's, April 25, 1780.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That on Sunday Morning laſt, about One o'Clock, the Dwelling-Houſe of Dr. John Miller, of Maynard's Farm, near Epping, in the County of Eſſex, was burglariouſly broken open by ſeveral Perſons unknown, ſuppoſed to be Four in Number, who, after plundering the Houſe of many Things, did, in the moſt inhuman, barbarous, and cruel Manner, cut and wound the ſaid Dr. Miller to ſo dreadful a Degree, that his Life is greatly deſpaired of:

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Offences, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Perſon or Perſons who cut and wounded the ſaid Dr. Miller) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

STORMONT.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the ſaid Dr. Miller doth hereby promiſe a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
